people should use the CLV (customer lifetime value) as a seal on the maximum amount you spend to get a customer.

the width of paver pass and speed can give you the square yardage placed.